

The New Liskeard Golf Course has a very robust Junior Program designed to introduce local youth to the game of golf as well as to enhance the skills of established junior golfers.

This program is open to both boys and girls ages 6 to 18 and is free for all junior members.

For program costs for non members and more information please contact the Pro Shop at 705-647-6651.

NEW LISIACARD GOLF CLUB - JUNIOR GOLF PROGRAM

- A Lesson program each Wednesday in July and August. Located on the driving range these lessons are conducted by Kyle Mejaki
- A Junior Mentoring program each Tuesday morning in July and August conducted by volunteer members. Each member takes a group of juniors out on the course and plays nine holes with them, explaining the rules and course etiquette.
- The Al Jamieson Junior Tournament gives junior golfers, of all levels, a chance to experience tournament play and test themselves in a tournament setting.
- A Golf Camp program conducted each Saturday in June is a combination of lessons and games to sharply hone the junior golfer's skills prior to the summer season.
- An excellent program to introduce young people to a sport they can play for a lifetime.
